Please note:

- > **Be sure you purchase this specific edition. The publisher sells several editions of this textbook, and different used copies are available from individual sellers online. This course is tied to the Ninth Edition only.*
- > Students are welcome to purchase the ebook version of this textbook for better pricing.
- > A graphing calculator is required for this course: TI-84 or equivalent. Acceptable equivalent options must be capable of trigonometric (radian, degree modes), exponential (base, exponent), and logarithmic (log, 1n) numerical calculations such as found on common device or online "scientific" calculators and low-cost "scientific" calculators (Casio, etc.), and graphing polynomials including trigonometric functions such as found at www.desmos.com.
- > Students planning on taking AP® Calculus or higher level math courses will be better prepared for those future courses by choosing a handheld calculator such as the TI-84. Otherwise, free, online "emulator" calculators such as <https://wabbit.codeplex.com/> are acceptable, if the student will have reliable Internet access while doing math work.
- > Books and materials requirements are subject to change at the discretion of the instructors.

You can order course materials for competitive prices through our HSLDA Online Academy bookstore. Use the Textbook Finder to locate the required resources for your courses. Please note that while most books are available through the bookstore, some titles are not carried and will need to be purchased elsewhere.
